

MAKING A DIFFERENCE: A Course for Those Who Minister

April 18 - 21, 2023

Holy Cross Monastery, 1615 US Highway 9W, West Park NY 12493

Making a Difference is an interfaith workshop for clergy and those involved in ministry. It will challenge you to rethink what is possible for yourself and for your ministry, and it will provide you with the tools to successfully bring about a future that is a match for your vision and commitment. Participants can expect a consistent and broad range of breakthrough results in both the spiritual and practical aspects of ministry. The most commonly reported outcomes are:

- Greater clarity about your purpose and the direction of your ministry as well as your personal life, so that each is a source of nourishment for the other.
- A richer and deeper prayer life, leaving you more centered and with a greater experience of serenity.
- The ability to move beyond limitations of thinking and acting and move into a future based on something more than what is predictable from the past.
- Valuable, new tools for affecting significant change, including a new and more powerful use of language.
- The ability to communicate in a powerful way that inspires and calls forth the alignment, cooperation, and partnership of others.
- Renewal and deepening of faith along with a new appreciation and respect for the faith and traditions of others.
- An appreciation and expansion of your natural charisma and capacity for leadership, including a greater confidence, a greater experience of your own worth, and the difference you can make.

General Information

Making a Difference includes lecture, group discussion, small group work, and daily periods of practicing Centering Prayer. Courses range in size from 10-30 participants and are open to women and men of every faith who minister to others.

The courses are conducted by a team of leaders, both lay and ordained persons, who are extensively trained in the course technology. No theology is presented or discussed by the course leaders, although participants are encouraged to discover where the ideas presented can enrich and empower their own theology and faith.
